Please type your responses to the following questions and return the application to IHE by mail or email.

1. Educational background: Please tell us about your educational background, including degree programs, relevant courses or workshops, specific academic interests, or areas of study.

2. Work Experience: Please tell us about your work and volunteer history.

3. Please write an essay in response to the following (maximum 750 words): What experiences in your life have led you to apply to the Summer Institute in Humane Education? What do you hope to learn/accomplish through this program? What is your ultimate goal as an educator? Please include your personal opinion on the goal of education and the qualities that make someone a great teacher. We would appreciate your addressing the following question in your essay: What is schooling for?

5. In large part, humane educators teach by example. Please tell us how you endeavor to model humane choices in your own life in relation to other people, the environment and animals.

6. Please tell us anything about yourself that you think we should know. (You may include any publications, articles, presentations, or other relevant supplemental materials.)

7. Submit your application via email to: marypat@humaneeducation.org, or send it via mail to the address below.
